

Club Rules (as revised at 21 July 2013, 16 July 2014, 27 July 2019 and 14 March 2022)

1. Name

The name of the Club shall be Grafham Water Sailing Club and the burgee of the club shall be green over blue, divided by a wavy white band.

2. Objects

The objects for which the club is formed are: - (a)

The encouragement of amateur yacht sailing.

(b) The encouragement of the study of seamanship, pilotage and navigation, of improvement in boat design and of boat building and sail-making.

(c) The holding and arrangement of matches, races, regattas and competitions in yachting, and the offering and granting of contributions towards the provision of prizes, awards and distinctions.

(d) The promotion of social intercourse between members of the club and their friends, and the provision of accommodation with all the usual privileges and advantages of a club for the purposes aforesaid.

3. Membership

(i) All persons, whether the owners of a yacht or dinghy or not, shall be eligible to be members of the club. All age related categories are calculated as at the start of the club year, being 1st April. Members shall be in one of the following categories: -

(a) Full Members - That is persons over the age of 18 years who are elected as Full Members pursuant to Rule 3(ii). Upon election a Full Member shall become a member of Grafham Water Sailing Club Limited and their names shall be entered in the Register of members accordingly. Members other than Full Members shall not be eligible to become members of Grafham Water Sailing Club Limited. Only Full Members shall be entitled to attend or vote at General Meetings. Those Full Members whose age exceeds 18 years but who have not exceeded the age of 25 years are hereafter described for subscription purposes as Young Adult Members. Full

Members who are over the greater of State Pension Age and 65 years of age are hereafter described for subscription purposes as Senior Members

(b) Junior Members - That is persons between the ages of 6 and up to 18 years. Junior Members under the age of 16 must have a Full Member or Non-Sailing

Member as a sponsor who takes on the responsibility set out in Rule 20(d) below

(c) Honorary Members - That is members elected as Honorary Members by the Council, provided that the total number of such Honorary Members shall not exceed 5 per cent of the total number of all members.

(d) Non-sailing Partner Members - members elected under this class of membership shall be 18 years of age or over and shall observe and be subject to these Rules and the By-Laws, but this shall not entitle them to sail on Grafham Water.

(e) Temporary Members - members of the yacht clubs recognised by the Royal Yachting Association may be admitted to temporary membership upon application to the Secretary. Other applicants for temporary membership must have their application forms signed by two members of the Council. Temporary membership shall cease upon the expiration of the period covered by the last subscription paid. Temporary membership shall not be granted for a period which exceeds one month in any one year. A temporary member may only race if he has received prior permission so to do from the Officer of the Day, provided that such permission shall not be required by a temporary member competing in an Open Meeting which has been authorised by or on behalf of the Council.

(f) Block Members - Groups of persons from full-time educational establishments (including Scouts, Guides and Cadets) and from Service establishments (including the Police and the fire Service) and from other bona fide organisations approved by Council may become members in accordance with such terms and regulations as may be laid down from time to time by the Council. A Block Membership, provided it contains at least one person in a Full Membership category, shall entitle the Block Member to the voting rights of one Full Membership. Individual Block Members shall be entitled to sail craft owned and registered by the Block Member only. Should an individual Block Member wish to sail their own craft, a separate Full Membership is required. Individuals admitted under this class of membership shall observe and be subject to these Rules and By-Laws.

(g) Honorary Life Members - That is members whose Honorary Life Membership is conferred by the Club in General Meeting on the recommendation of the Council. Honorary Life Members will be members of the club who have rendered the club outstanding service and whom the Commodore and Flag Officers suggest to the Council shall be selected for this honour. A record of Honorary Life Members and their service to the club shall be kept and displayed prominently in the clubhouse. The privileges of membership will also extend to the wife or husband of the Honorary Life Member. Honorary Life Members shall be treated as Full Members for the purposes of these Rules.

(h) Non-Sailing Members - Members elected under this class of membership shall be 18 years of age or over and shall observe and be subject to these Rules and the By-Laws, but this shall not entitle them to sail on Grafham Water. Non Sailing members shall be treated as Full Members for the purposes of these Rules. Nonsailing Members are not entitled to keep a boat at the Club, except, at the absolute discretion of Council which will be applied on a case by case basis for a period of up to twelve months in the first instance and only in cases where they have previously been Full Members of the Club for a period of at least twelve months.

(i) Day Members (Sailing) - Persons who are admitted by the Secretary to sail on one day, under conditions laid down by the Council and after payment of such fees as the Council shall require. Such members may not berth a boat at the Club and may not introduce guests to the club.

(j) Day Members (Non-Sailing) - persons accompanying day members (sailing) who are admitted by the Secretary, under conditions laid down by the Council and after payment of such fees as the Council shall require.

(k) Corporate Membership - may, at the discretion of Council, be granted to Companies, Partnerships or Sole Proprietors of Businesses occupying property within the club grounds and who are tenants or licencees of the club. Membership may be granted for whatever period the related occupancy agreement provides for an amount which may be fixed and reviewed by Council.

(l) Staff Members – persons, being full time or part time employees of the Club, or sub-contractors of the Club, as elected from time to time by Council on conditions laid down by Council

(ii) A candidate for membership shall send to the Club Secretary a signed form setting out his or her name and address and any other particulars the Council shall require. Interim admission to the club will be permitted after an interval of at least two days from the application. A list of prospective new members will be presented to the Council at scheduled council meetings. If there are no objections to any of the candidates then the list will be signed as approved by the committee chairman.

(iii) On the request of any one member of the Council, candidates may be elected by secret ballot. A simple majority of the Council then present shall decide.

(iv) Any member desirous of resigning from the club shall notify the Secretary of the club in writing of his intention to resign, before the 31st day of March in any year, otherwise he shall be liable for the dues and subscriptions for the succeeding year, and upon receipt by the club Secretary of such notice, the rights of such a person as a member of the club shall cease.

(v) If any member shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or with the Rules of the Club or shall be guilty of any conduct which, in the opinion of Council, is either unworthy of a member, or is likely to be injurious to the club, such member shall be liable to disciplinary action by Council. Council shall have power by resolution to expel the member or at its absolute discretion impose a lesser sanction, including suspension for a specified period of time. Where Council considers that expulsion is a possible sanction, at least one week before the meeting at which such resolution is passed, a notice shall have been despatched (electronically or otherwise) to the member at the address shown in the register of members, stating the nature of the resolution and the time and place at which it will be considered and intimating that he may attend, and before such resolution is passed, give orally or in writing such explanation or defence as he may think fit. A member expelled under this rule shall forfeit all right in and claim upon the club and its property. The vote on a resolution for expulsion shall be by ballot and the resolution shall only be carried if not less than three quarters of the members of the Council present vote in favour of the resolution. The Quorum for a meeting called to vote on such a resolution shall be not less than nine members of the Council.

(vi) A member of the Club shall also cease to be a member -

(a) On his resignation, or death, or -

(b) Upon a report to the Council by the Secretary of the Club that he has received a notice from Anglian Water Services Limited requiring the expulsion of the member named in the notice and that he has despatched a copy of the notice to the member at his address shown in the register of members.

(vii) No person who has been expelled from membership shall be admitted to the club as a guest without the sanction of Council.

4. Entrance Fee; Subscriptions & Boat Dues

(i) Members shall pay such entrance fees, dues and subscriptions to the Club as shall from time to time be fixed by the Club and any member whose dues and subscriptions are unpaid on the 1st day of May in any year shall cease ipso facto to be a member of the Club.

(ii) No member shall in any year be entitled to exercise any rights or privileges of membership until his entrance fee and subscription for that year have been paid.

(iii) A member elected after the end of June shall have his subscription and boat dues in the year of joining reduced by such sum as the Council may from time to time prescribe.

(iv) Entrance fees, dues and subscriptions as applying from time to time will be shown on a separate list and displayed on the Club's web site.

(v) The Council shall have power to fix the fees payable by temporary members and block members.

5. Guests

Any member may introduce as his guest any person, providing that the member so introducing enters his own name and the name and address of his guest in the book kept for such purpose, and at no time leaves the Club premises while the said guest is thereon.

Members shall be held responsible for ensuring that the behaviour of their guests is acceptable to other members and for their compliance with the club rules and Byelaws and shall pay all monies due to the Club in respect of such guest.

No member may introduce more than two guests in any one day and the same guest may not be introduced on more than four occasions in any one year, irrespective of who introduces him or her.

A member who is a member of a block membership may only introduce one guest on any one day and the same guest may not be introduced on more than two occasions in any one year by a member of a block membership.

6. General Meeting

(i) An Annual General Meeting shall be held on some day in the months of June or July to be fixed by the Commodore, and the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Articles of Association of Grafham Water Sailing Club Limited.
