

Congratulations to all who took part in the Pursuit Race in support of the RNLI Mayday appeal on Sunday 6th May. In very trying light (to nothing) winds, Ian Walters in a Solo was a worthy winner half a leg ahead of Nigel and Fiona Denchfield in a Lark in 2nd and Allen Cave and Ashley Painter in a Flying Fifteen in 3rd.

Anne Young in 9th and James Clarke in 10th received medals for endurance.

The Mayday appeal is running throughout May to raise £750,000 to fund vital equipment for RNLI volunteers who save an average of 23 lives a day at sea.

Many thanks to all who made donations or bought items from the RNLI stall run by Kettering and District RNLI. Also many thanks to Race Officer Dave Phillipot and his team and to Mark Rushton and David McNamee for organising the day.
